Dated Chandigarh, the 13 February 1991

Subject: - Amendment in Condemnation and Disposal rules and procedures for store items and vehicles upto 31-12-91 special campaign for disposal.

Sir,

I am directed to invite a reference to the Subject noted above and to say that in view of increasing stock of disposable stores. Govt. feels that a special campaign is required for condemnation/disposal of stores/Vehicles in the state. In relaxation of rules upto 31-12-91. The position will be reviewed later in the light of the results obtained: -

(1) All Condemned stores, which are to be sold off as ferrous or non ferrous scrap will be offered for sale to Haryana concast Ltd. Hisar, District Head of all offices will intimate Haryana concast Ltd. Hisar under intimation to their Heads of Departments within a fortnight. The availability of condemned scrap and machinery which is to be sold by weight and request them to lift such material immediately. In case, any head of department feels that the stores are not to be disposed on should not be sold as scrap he may intimate Haryana Concast Ltd. and his Distt. Head accordingly, within 15 days of intimation by Distt. Head of office. Otherwise, consent will be presumed. stores may be lifted by Haryana consent Ltd. without pre-payment but against a receipt Prices, including cost of transportation will be decided by Director, supplies and Disposals, Haryana and M.D concast Jointly. Haryana Concast Ltd. will make arrangements to lift this scrap expeditiously within a fortnight of intimation. if this material is not Eifted by Haryana concast Ltd. then the Department will agganage to auction the scrap with general Manager, Haryana Roadways of the area concerned after fixation of reserve price and it will be disposal off every month in the auction organized by the General Manager, Haryana Roadways alongwith the Roadways stores. These instructions will also apply to scrap iron stores in the process of disposal with Director, supplies and Disposals Haryana.

No reserve prices need to be fixed for scrap which is to be sold to Haryana concast Ltd for other. Scrap which is not lifted by Haryana Concast Ltd. The reserve price will be fixed by the condemnation board of the District, for scrap stores vet to the condemned the condemnation board will carry out the condemnation simultaneously fixing the reserve price. The condemnation board will be the same as for Govt. vehicles at district level.

(II) Other stores whose book value is less than or equal to Rs. 50000/- shall be got condemned/disposed off by same board as above through monthly auction or tenders, as may be decided by the board.

(III) Stores, of which the book value exceeds Rs.50000/- other than vehicles and scrap will be condemned and disposed off by the office of Director Supplies & Disposals, in the manner being followed at present. The information regarding such items will be collected from the Heads of the Department by D.S.D cases of disposal of stores pending with D.S & D of value less than Rs.50,000/- will be referred to the Deputy Commissioners by Director, Supplies & Disposals.

2. The present practice of condemnation/disposal of the vehicles which is in vogue will continue with the modification that if a vehicle is not disposed off by auction on the reserve price in two consecutive auctions, then the Director, Supplies & Disposal/Deputy Commissioners Concerned will be empowered to reduce the reserve price up to 20% less than the average of last two auctions.

3. Full power of administrative approval are delegated to Heads of the Departments for storage and vehicles yet to be condemned. For storage and vehicles already condemned. But awaiting administrative approval, the same may be presumed to have been obtained unless Head of the Department issues a specific refusal. Head of the Departments will make sure that Administrative approval or refusal is granted latest in month's time for Stores and vehicles yet to be condemned in future.

4. After obtaining the administrative approval, sanction of the Govt., in the Industries Deptt. for calling tenders of the stores need not be obtained either by Director, Supplies & Disposals or the Condemnation Board as the case may be.

5. Director, Supplies & Disposals/Deputy Commissioners/General Managers, Haryana Roadways will decide the date for condemnation/disposals of the stores/vehicles as and when need be instead of the present practice of condemnation/disposal after every three months.

6. Director Supplies & Disposals, will hold meetings with some of the Heads of the Departments where vehicles are awaiting disposal in large numbers for want of administrative approval and impress upon them the urgent need to dispose them off and in case any Head of the Department/Corporation/Board expresses inability to do so the matter will be brought to the notice of the Financial Commissioner, Finance and Commissioner & Secretary to the Govt. of Haryana Industries Department for taking action in the matter

These orders will remain in force till 31-12-91

It is hoped that you will take necessary steps immediately disposed off the storage lying condemned for Condemnable.

Yours faithfully,
