Memo No. T-1/Anti-Ragging/2012-13 - 2120

Dated :- 26-10-12

Subject:- Implementation of "The Haryana Prohibition of Ragging in Educational Institution Ordinance 2012."

This is in continuation to this directorate letter no. T-5/S/Court Judgment/Ragging/2010 dated 5.5.2010 on the subject cited above.

It is informed that with the intention to ban ragging in all academic institutions, whether public or private, the State Govt. of Haryana has notified "The Haryana Prohibition of Ragging in Educational Institution Ordinance, 2012", which has come in force w.e.f. 5th July, 2012.

- The ordinance prohibits ragging in any form within or outside the premises of an educational institution.
- The overall responsibility for enforcement of the Ordinance rests with the Head of the Institutions and failure to enforce the Ordinance may attract imprisonment to a term which may extend up to six months and with fine which may extend up to twenty-five thousand rupees.
- The students/parents are required to furnish an affidavit at the time of admission undertaking not to indulge in ragging.
- Any student found guilty of ragging will be compulsorily suspended for one year or two semesters as the case may be in addition to other punishments that the Head of the Institution may impose.
- In case the act of ragging constitutes a criminal offence as defined under Indian Penal Code 1860 (45 f 1860), the Head is also obligated to get an FIR lodged with the Police.

A copy of the ordinance alongwith the proforma for affidavit to be submitted by the students/parents at the time of admission is hereby enclosed for information and further necessary action with the direction to take necessary steps to ensure the compliance and to strictly implement the Haryana Prohibition of Ragging in the institutes.
