Subject :- Format for giving information to the applicant under RTI Act – issue of guidelines regarding.

Sir/Madam,

I am directed to address you on the subject cited above and to inform you that State Information Commission, Haryana has been observed that different public authorities provide information to RTI applicants in different formats. Though there cannot be a standard format for providing information, the reply should however, essentially contain the following information:

- (i) RTI Application number with date and date of its receipt in the public authority.
- (ii) The name, designation, official telephone number and email ID of the SPIO.
- (iii) In case the information requested for is denied, detailed reasons for denial quoting the relevant section of the RTI Act should be clearly mentioned.
- (iv) In case the information pertains to other public authority and the application is transferred under section 6(3) of the RTI Act, then details of the public authority to whom the RTI application has been transferred should be given.
- (v) In case additional fee is sought, provision of Rule 4(4) and 5(2) should invariable be intimated to the citizen seeking information including the right of appeal against the decision of SPIO.
- (vi) Where the SPIO intends to disclose any information or record or part thereof on a request made under this Act, which relates to or has been supplied by a third party and has been treated as confidential by the third party, the SPIO is obliged to proceed as per Section 11 of the RTI Act, 2005 to take a decision about sharing of information pertaining to third party.
- (vii) In the concluding para of the reply, as mandated in sub-section 8 of Section 7 of the Act, it should be clearly mentioned that the First Appeal, if any against the reply of the
